SNELL & WILMER BOLSTERS PRIVATE CLIENT SERVICES, INTERNATIONAL, CORPORATE AND SECURITIES PRACTICES IN DENVER

DENVER (September 17, 2018) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Chuong M. Le has joined the Denver office as a partner in its Private Client Services, International, and Corporate and Securities practices.

Le maintains nearly 15 years of legal experience with much of his career focused on wealth strategies, including national and international estate planning, charitable giving, private family foundations, and business succession plans. He also advises on strategies to protect client assets, minimize tax implications and avoid probate issues.

In addition to his wealth management experience, Le advises national and international companies through every stage of business, including mergers and acquisitions, investments, joint ventures, exit transactions, anti-trust and regulatory matters.

“We are fortunate to welcome an attorney of Chuong’s caliber to the firm, and have every confidence that his leadership and experience within the wealth management industry and international community, as well as his vast business experience, will be an immediate benefit to our clients,” said Curt Reimann, managing partner for Snell & Wilmer in Denver.

Chuong M. Le

Le is fluent in English and Vietnamese. He is admitted to practice law in Colorado. Le completed his undergraduate education at Colorado College before earning his Juris Doctorate and L.L.M. in Tax at the University of Denver, Sturm College of Law.
