SNELL & WILMER'S SPECIAL LITIGATION AND COMPLIANCE GROUP GROWS IN PHOENIX WITH ADDITION OF DEREK FLINT

PHOENIX (November 5, 2018) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce Derek Flint has joined the special litigation and compliance group as an associate in the Phoenix office.

Flint focuses his practice on representing businesses and individuals in international trade, healthcare and government relations matters. His government relations practice includes political and election law, government contracting and government investigations.

Prior to joining the firm, Flint was a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable John R. Lopez IV of the Supreme Court of Arizona. He received his J.D from the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at Arizona State University, and his B.A. in International Relations from the University of British Columbia. In addition, Flint is a member of the Phoenix Committee on Foreign Relations.
