SNELL & WILMER PARTNER JACEY PRUPAS NAMED BOARD CHAIR FOR KNPB PUBLIC BROADCASTING

RENO (November 27, 2018) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Jacey Prupas, a partner in the firm's Reno office, has been named Chair of the Board of Directors of KNPB Public Broadcasting. She will begin serving a one-year term on January 1, 2019. She has been a member of the Board of Directors since 2016.

KNPB Public Broadcasting, the PBS member station serving central and northern Nevada and northeastern California, has been delivering public television and educational services since 1983 through the support of local corporations and foundations, as well as individual members. KNPB provides PBS national programming and award winning locally produced KNPB programming seen by more than 168,000 people weekly.

"I am honored to continue to serve KNPB in my new role as Board Chair in 2019," said Prupas. "KNPB has been an integral part of my life for many years, and I look forward to working with my esteemed colleagues on the board in the new year, to continue to carry out KNPB's important mission for our Reno community and beyond."

Jacey Prupas

In addition to serving on the board of KNPB, Prupas also serves on the board of the directors of the Reno Philharmonic Association. She is also very active in the community and serves as the founder and contributor of the Prupas Medical Student Scholarship Endowment, in memory of her late father Dr. Malin Prupas.

At Snell & Wilmer, Prupas' practice is concentrated in commercial litigation and business dispute resolution with an emphasis in contract disputes, complex business torts, malpractice defense, healthcare issues and personal injury. Prupas has defended numerous clients in cases of significant exposure in both federal and state courts throughout Nevada and California. She received her B.S. and J.D. from Santa Clara University. Prupas is a current member and past board member of the Northern Nevada Women's Lawyers Association and serves on the Board of Bar Examiners for the State Bar of Nevada. She has been named Legal Elite by Nevada Business Magazine (2013-2017) and is also listed in the Mountain States Super Lawyers Rising Stars Edition (2009, 2011-2018). She was also named to The Best Lawyers in America® for Commercial Litigation (2018-2019).

The Nevada offices of Snell & Wilmer serve a wide range of clients in the following practice areas: civil and commercial litigation; administrative law; real estate transactions; finance; corporate and tax; bankruptcy; employment and labor and construction law.
