TONY CARUCCI JOINS ASSOCIATE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS FOUNDATION OF ORANGE COUNTY

ORANGE COUNTY (November 29, 2018) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Orange County attorney Tony Carucci has joined as the first Chair of the Associate Board of Directors for The Constitutional Rights Foundation of Orange County (CRF-OC).

CRF-OC is a local non-profit education organization dedicated to promoting civic literacy, youth leadership and career awareness among OC teens. Operating consistently since 1981, CRF-OC organizes and operates high-quality, interactive civic and law-related education programs that connect students directly with professionals and community leaders. As a founding member for the Associate Board of Directors, Tony will work with the other board members to support the mission and programs of the CRF-OC.

Tony Carucci

Tony concentrates his practice on business litigation in state and federal courts. He represents clients in matters involving breach of contract, business torts, and real estate disputes. He also represents a variety of lenders and financial institutions in creditors' rights litigation. His practice includes collections litigation and judgment enforcement against domestic individuals and business entities. Tony also advises U.S. and foreign-based gaming companies in complying with U.S. gaming laws and regulations.

Tony received his J.D. from Notre Dame Law School and his B.A. in International Relations and Philosophy from Tufts University. He has been involved with the CRF-OC since 2017 as a member of the Mock Trial Committee and has been an Emerging Leaders United Council Member for the Orange County United Way since 2016. Tony is a part of the American Bar Association, Young Lawyers Division and the Orange County Bar Association.
