CALIFORNIA PARTNER ELIZABETH M. WELDON PUBLISHED IN THE ANNOTATED FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

ORANGE COUNTY (January 17, 2019) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce California partner Elizabeth M. Weldon recently contributed a chapter for a book published by the American Bar Association Forum on Franchising titled The Annotated Franchise Agreement.

Weldon's chapter "Fees, Initial Terms, and Renewal" draws on her experience in franchise litigation. The chapter, co-authored by Joseph Sheyka, covers a variety of common franchising fees and charges, including but not limited to the initial fee, continuing royalty, late payments and applications of payments. The chapter also covers the initial term and renewal and renewal conditions.

Weldon's practice at Snell & Wilmer is concentrated in business litigation and franchise litigation. She represents both large and small businesses in commercial litigation matters, including breach of contract, tort, class action, trademark, and trade dress claims. Additionally, Weldon represents franchisors in matters including breach of contract, trademark and trade name infringement, business competition torts, and franchise law claims.

In the community, Weldon has been involved with Girls Incorporated® of Orange County for more than seven years, serving on the Board of Directors since 2011. Weldon has been named a Franchise Times Legal Eagle since 2011, and has been selected for inclusion in the Best Lawyers in America®, Franchise Law (2016-2019) and the Southern California Super Lawyers - Rising Stars Edition, Franchise/Dealership, Business Litigation, Intellectual Property Litigation (2007-2016).
