PROJECT YOUTH OCBF WELCOMES SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY CHARIESE R. SOLORIO TO ASSOCIATE BOARD

ORANGE COUNTY (January 22, 2019) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Orange County attorney Chariese R. Solorio has joined the Project Youth OCBF's Associate Board.

Project Youth OCBF is a nonprofit organization dedicated to keeping at-risk youth in school, healthy and drug-free through education, counseling, mentoring, and family strengthening. The Associate Board is a volunteer group of successful, socially conscious, and motivated young professionals in their 20's and 30's, who support the mission of Project Youth. Through volunteer activities, social events and networking opportunities, the Associate Board assists in the cultivation of the next generation of leaders committed to Project Youth and serving those in need in our community.

Chariese R. Solorio

Solorio is an associate in the Orange County office focusing her practice on product liability litigation. She obtained her J.D. from the University of California, Irvine School of Law in 2015 and her B.A. in political science from the University of California, Los Angeles in 2010. Solorio is licensed to practice law in California and has been a member of the Hispanic Bar Association of Orange County since 2014.
