PARTNER GARTH D. STEVENS JOINS ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PHOENIX (March 18, 2019) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that corporate and securities partner Garth D. Stevens has joined the board of directors of St. Joseph the Worker (SJW), a Phoenix-based non-profit whose mission is to assist homeless, low-income and other disadvantaged individuals in becoming self-sufficient through quality employment.

“As a longtime supporter of St. Joseph the Worker, I’m both proud and excited to join the organization’s board of directors,” Stevens said. “I look forward to working with the other SJW board members, Executive Director Brent Downs and the rest of the SJW team to help advance the organization’s critical mission.”

Stevens previously served on the board of directors for DrugFreeAzKids.org from 2008 to 2013, including serving as that organization’s chair from 2011 to 2013. He currently serves as a founding board member of MAPLE Business Council® an executive organization promoting investment, trade and entrepreneurship between the United States and Canada.

Garth D. Stevens

Stevens is the chair of Snell & Wilmer’s corporate and securities practice group. His practice is concentrated in general corporate, transactional and securities law focusing on mergers and acquisitions, complex joint ventures, fund formation, licensing transactions and commercial agreements. As a former Canadian attorney, he regularly advises on M&A and other cross-border transactional matters between the United States and Canada.
