SNELL & WILMER HOSTS 11TH ANNUAL SUIT SOIRÉE COLLECTING MORE THAN 650 CLOTHING AND ACCESSORY ITEMS TO BENEFIT S.A.F.E. HOUSE

LAS VEGAS (April 19, 2019) The women of Snell & Wilmer’s Las Vegas office hosted its 11th Annual Second Chance Suit Soirée, a reception on April 10 benefitting S.A.F.E. House, which stands for Stop Abuse in the Family Environment. More than 650 gently worn professional apparel and accessory items were collected for the nonprofit organization.

Snell & Wilmer staff and attorneys also assembled 30 backpacks filled with comfort items, which will be given to children and teenagers when they arrive at S.A.F.E. House. The backpack items, donated by Snell & Wilmer attorneys and staff, were filled with toiletry items, ear buds, gift cards, socks and other personal items.

“Now in its 11th year, our community came together again to help those in need,” said Snell & Wilmer Attorney Blakeley Griffith. “This event is special to us and we are grateful for the generosity that has continued for more than a decade.”

“We were also pleased to welcome the UNLV String Quartet this year, which delighted our attendees with their excellent selection of classical and jazz music,” added Snell & Wilmer Partner Patricia Curtis.

This year’s Suit Soirée collected suits, slacks, blouses, trousers, shoes, purses and accessories, filling numerous clothing racks and large boxes. Also donated were several large bags of toiletry items. More than 6,425 items have been donated during the past seven years.

S.A.F.E. House is an organization that has been helping women and families since 1994. It provides quality crisis intervention, shelter, advocacy and counseling services to domestic violence victims and their children and accredited treatment services for those who choose to abuse. Established by a group of community leaders concerned about the needs of battered women and their children, the organization provides a comprehensive approach to working with families to Stop Abuse in the Family Environment.
