ROSE B. SORENSEN JOINS SNELL & WILMER AS PARTNER IN LOS ANGELES OFFICE

LOS ANGELES (April 25, 2019) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Rose B. Sorensen has joined the Los Angeles office as a partner in the Corporate and Securities practice group.

Sorensen comes to Snell & Wilmer from Norton Rose Fulbright with extensive experience in mergers and acquisitions, divestitures, reorganizations, commercial finance, private placements, venture capital financing, corporate governance, telecommunications services, joint ventures, licensing and entity structure and formation. She has represented a variety of domestic and international clients in the technology, healthcare, food processing, manufacturing, retail consumer brand, business services, construction and building materials industries.

“We continually look for strategic growth opportunities that make sense to our clients and the firm,” said Cary Jones, managing partner of Snell & Wilmer’s Los Angeles office. “Hiring Rose is one of those opportunities. She is an outstanding attorney whose work experience and extensive background in corporate law makes her an invaluable asset to our clients and firm.”

Sorensen previously served as general counsel of a private cable operator and internet service provider with operations throughout California, Arizona and Texas where she handled a variety of telecommunications transactions for multifamily projects, mixed-use and master planned communities and commercial properties. Her background as general counsel gives her a unique and balanced pragmatic perspective in advising businesses on the complexities and functional considerations of their operations.

Sorensen is fluent in French and Spanish.
