PHOENIX PARTNER JENNIFER HADLEY CATERO JOINS HOMEWARD BOUND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PHOENIX (May 31, 2019) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce Phoenix partner Jennifer Hadley Catero was appointed to the board of directors of Homeward Bound, an Arizona-based nonprofit serving the needs of over 130 homeless families annually.

"I am excited to join the board of directors of Homeward Bound because it's a program that works," Catero said. "The organization has a proven track record of success in transitioning families out of poverty by providing them the skill set to live life on their own two feet. It is an important mission with an energized board, and I can't wait to start making a contribution to its ongoing success."

Homeward Bound not only provides the homeless with housing, but also an in-depth program, including financial planning, healthy relationship building, parenting and self-improvement coaching to get clients back on their own two feet. Its mission is to create pathways out of poverty for homeless families ready to make a change. Results show that after entering the Homeward Bound program, 82% of adults obtain employment and 94% of children improve their grades in school.
