TWO ASSOCIATES JOIN SNELL & WILMER LOS CABOS OFFICE

LOS CABOS (July 25, 2019) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that two associates joined Snell & Wilmer in its Los Cabos office, both joining the Real Estate practice group.

Jorge Fragoso focuses his practice on real estate development, corporate and cross-border business transactions. He is admitted to practice law in California and Mexico. Fragoso has broad legal experience with advising clients on domestic and international matters, evaluating legal risks associated with real estate interests, agencies, distributors and representing clients in dispute resolution forums. He has also advised clients in structuring complex commercial transactions, evaluating civil matters, working with local counsel and representing clients in litigation, mediation and arbitration procedures. Fragoso has experience in private practice in Mexico and has participated as in-house counsel in the United States assisting with the company's businesses in Mexico, Latin America and the Caribbean.

Edgar Origel

Edgar Origel focuses his practice of law in real estate. His experience includes representation of foreign and domestic clients, coordination of trust closings, notaries and negotiation of agreements. Origel also has experience in corporate law, condominium law, foreign investment in Mexico, commercial transactions, immigration law, trademarks, labor and administrative law, general legal consulting and representation before government agencies including municipal, state and federal.

“We always have an eye out for ways to grow our presence and expertise in Los Cabos. Jorge and Edgar are great additions to our Mexico office,” said Carlos Sugich, managing partner in the Los Cabos office. “Their diverse background and experience in cross-border transactions and local real estate matters will serve the Firm and our clients well.”

Opened in 2008, Snell & Wilmer’s Los Cabos office provides a full range of cross-border transactional and regulatory legal services to national and international clients with business ventures throughout Baja and northern Mexico.
