PHOENIX PARTNER ANTHONY W. MERRILL ADMITTED TO AMERICAN COLLEGE OF COVERAGE COUNSEL

PHOENIX (November 11, 2019) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Anthony W. Merrill has become a fellow of the American College of Coverage Counsel (ACCC), the preeminent association who represent the interests of insurers and policyholders in disputes arising out of insurance policies.

“I am honored to be selected as a Fellow of the ACCC,” said Merrill. “This recognition acknowledges the strength and depth of our insurance coverage practice and I look forward to the opportunities the ACCC will provide to enhance the service we provide to our policyholder clients.”

Anthony W. Merrill

The ACCC, established in 2012, is an invitation-only organization of senior lawyers who have devoted most of their practice to insurance disputes for 15 years or more. The ACCC's Fellows include many of the most prominent members of the insurance law bars of the United States and Canada, as well as Honorary Fellows from academia and the judiciary.

The ACCC focuses on educating all sectors involved in the field of insurance law – including the judiciary, legal and insurance professionals, law students and businesses – on cutting edge, emerging, and critical issues such as developing trends in insurance law and bad faith, trial practice and alternative dispute resolution, policy formation and claims handling. Its mission is to advance the creative, ethical and efficient resolution of insurance coverage and extracontractual disputes; to enhance the civility and quality of the practice of insurance law; to provide peer-reviewed scholarship; and to improve the relationships among the members of our profession.

“The ACCC is delighted to welcome Anthony as the latest member to become actively involved in its work,” said Michael Aylward, president of ACCC.

Merrill's wide range of experience in complex disputes enables him to bring unique problem-solving approaches to clients. He assists clients in obtaining insurance coverage for policyholders on catastrophic commercial claims. While he has extensive experience in latent or long-tail environmental, property damage and bodily injury claims, he also represents clients in connection with civil disputes involving data security and cyber insurance coverage, D&O claims, large loss property and fire claims, insolvent insurance carriers, reinsurance, retrospective premiums, and specialty risk lines.
