ELIZABETH WYLIE RECOGNIZED AS ONE OF THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION'S 100 WOMEN WHO INSPIRE US

DENVER (November 19, 2019) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that partner Elizabeth Wylie was selected as one of the 100 Women Who Inspire Us at the American Bar Association's 2019 Women in Litigation conference. The conference is part of the ABA Section of Litigation's year-long celebration of the 100th anniversary of the passage of the 19th Amendment, which guarantees and protects women's constitutional right to vote. The inspirational women were celebrated throughout the conference, which highlighted women who lead in the courtroom, in the judiciary and in the profession.

Elizabeth S. Wylie

"I am honored to be recognized as a part of this inspiring group of women," said Wylie. "It is important for us to celebrate the work of women in our profession and in our communities."

Wylie is a trial attorney with more than 25 years of experience focusing on business and employment litigation involving commercial disputes and employment matters. She has represented clients across multiple industries, including food service, health care, construction, real estate and manufacturing. As chair of The Women's Foundation of Colorado's Power of Extended Philanthropy Committee, Wylie has supported the passage of Colorado's Equal Pay Act and often presents to organizations on topics, such as pay equity and women's leadership.
