PHOENIX ATTORNEY DANIEL M. STAREN SELECTED TO SERVE AS CO-CHAIR OF ABA PATENT LITIGATION SUBCOMMITTEE

PHOENIX (November 25, 2019) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Daniel M. Staren, associate in the firm's Phoenix office, was selected to lead as a Co-Chair of the Patent Infringement Subcommittee of the American Bar Association Section of Intellectual Property Law's Patent Litigation Committee.

From its strength within the American Bar Association, the ABA Section of Intellectual Property Law (ABA-IPL) advances the development and improvement of intellectual property laws and their fair and just administration. The Section furthers the goals of its members by sharing knowledge and balanced insight on the full spectrum of intellectual property law and practice, including patents, trademarks, copyright, design, and trade secrets.

At Snell & Wilmer, Staren is a member of the firm's commercial litigation group. His practice focuses on a wide range of complex business disputes, including contract, corporate governance and intellectual property and technology litigation.

Daniel M. Staren

Staren has experience at all stages of complex commercial litigation in state and federal court. In particular, he has prepared pre-litigation analyses, prepared and responded to complaints, drafted and responded to motions, argued hearings, deposed witnesses, worked with experts and helped manage all aspects of fact and expert discovery. Staren maintains an active pro bono practice in which he provides a variety of legal services to clients who do not have the resources to pay customary legal fees.

Staren received his J.D. from Arizona State University, Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law, his M.S. in molecular biology from Loyola University and his B.A. in psychology from University of Illinois.
