DENVER PARTNER CHUONG LE RECOGNIZED FOR HIS WORK STRENGTHENING BUSINESS RELATIONS BETWEEN VIETNAM AND THE UNITED STATES

DENVER (January 17, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Denver partner Chuong Le was recently recognized for his continued efforts in promoting business and cultural partnerships between the United States and Vietnam. Vietnamese Ambassador to the United States Ha Kim Ngoc formally recognized Le for his contributions during a celebration of the Lunar New Year in Washington, D.C.

Chuong Le

The Embassy of Vietnam in the United States hosted the event for about 250 guests from the Vietnamese community in the United States as well as international guests. Ambassador Ha Kim Ngoc expressed gratitude for Le's efforts to build connections and promote relations between businesses in the United States and Vietnam. This year marks the 25th anniversary of the normalization of diplomatic relations between the two countries.

"There are many excellent opportunities for Vietnam and the United States to work together in business," said Le. "I enjoy helping business owners explore the potential advantages of doing business overseas, specifically in Vietnam, where technology, energy, manufacturing and other sectors are growing considerably."

Le represents domestic and international companies in all stages of development, and he has represented companies in various phases of real estate holdings and investments. He serves as board chair of the Colorado Vietnam Cooperation Council and is a former president of the Asian Pacific American Bar Association.
