DENISE A. DRAGOO ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE ALTA CLUB

SALT LAKE CITY (January 28, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce Partner Denise A. Dragoo has been elected President of the Alta Club, a private club in downtown Salt Lake City, Utah.

The Alta Club was founded in 1883, 13 years before Utah's accession as a state and was named for a local mining district. The club serves as a forum of business development and social interaction. It also offers facilities for dining, social events and business meetings.

Dragoo has been an influential member of the club for 23 years and previously served as Vice President to outgoing President Jeff Scott. She will serve as the third female President since the club's founding.

At Snell & Wilmer, Dragoo focuses her practice in natural resources and environmental law, including coal, water, mining, public land and issues affecting the oil and gas industry, mine safety and health law. She practices before the Utah Department of Environmental Quality, the Utah Board of Oil, Gas and Mining, the United States Department of the Interior Board of Land Appeals and state and federal courts. Prior to Snell & Wilmer, Dragoo served as Special Assistant Utah Attorney General to the Utah Board and Division of Oil, Gas & Mining and was responsible for drafting the Utah Coal Mining and Reclamation Act.

Dragoo received a B.A. from the University of Colorado and her J.D. from the University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law. She also received an LL.M. in Environmental Law and Land Use from the Washington University School of Law in St. Louis, Missouri.
