DAWN DAVIS NAMED TO FAMILY TO FAMILY CONNECTION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

LAS VEGAS (January 31, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Dawn Davis, an attorney in the firm's Las Vegas office, has been named to the Board of Directors of Family to Family Connection.

Founded in 1998 by Sandy Miller, former First Lady of Nevada, Family to Family Connection serves families with children from birth to age five and empowers parents and caretakers with the tools to provide a safe and nurturing environment for their children through parent education and community networking. In 2018, Family to Family Connection provided over 845 classes to 10,505 children and 8,207 adults.

“As a native Nevadan, I am honored to serve on Family to Family Connection’s board and hope I can contribute significantly to its outreach efforts,” said Davis. “Family to Family provides an invaluable service in our community by offering resources and classes to young families that they may otherwise not have.”

In addition to serving as a board member of Family to Family Connection, Davis also serves as a pro bono attorney for the Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada’s Children’s Attorneys Project.

At Snell & Wilmer, Davis focuses her practice in civil litigation and is concentrated in product liability defense. Davis represents a broad range of clients in both state and federal district courts, primarily in disputes involving claims for catastrophic injury, wrongful death and property damage. Davis also has extensive alternative dispute resolution experience and routinely assists clients through mediation, arbitration and settlement conferences. She earned her J.D., from the William S. Boyd School of Law, her M.B.A. from the Lee Business School at University Nevada, Las Vegas and her B.A. from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. She is licensed to practice in all Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming State Courts and United States District Court, District of Nevada and Idaho.
