HEATHER N. DUKES JOINS PHOENIX OFFICE OF SNELL & WILMER

PHOENIX (March 3, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Heather N. Dukes joined the firm in the Phoenix offices as an associate in the real estate practice group.

Dukes concentrates her practice in zoning and land use planning. She has experience advising clients in zoning codes, statutory requirements and case law applicable to various development proposals throughout the Valley and in some parts of northern Arizona.

Dukes' zoning experience includes legislative approvals, such as general plan amendments and rezonings, as well as administrative approvals including variances, use permits, and interpretations. She has assisted clients in various development approval processes, including site plan and permit approvals. When necessary, she has processed technical appeals and administrative exaction appeals of development requirements. She also has experience in litigation involving real estate and land use entitlements. In addition, Dukes has appeared before local governments and the Arizona State Liquor Board on behalf of liquor license applicants.

Dukes graduated with her J.D. from Arizona State University, Sandra Day O' Connor College of Law and with her B.S. in criminal justice from Grand Canyon University.
