TAXFORWARD ELECTS SNELL & WILMER COUNSEL MAGNOLIA MOVIDO TO ITS NATIONAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND BOARD CHAIR OF FUTURE TAX LEADERS

DENVER (June 1, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Magnolia Movido, tax attorney in the firm’s Denver office, has been elected to the National Board of Directors of TaxForward, a volunteer organization committed to enhancing the technical and leadership skills of tax professionals. As an appointed member of its National Board, Movido will promote the mission of TaxForward by leveraging her network, resources and knowledge. She was also elected to serve as the Board Chair of Future Tax Leaders, TaxForward’s subsidiary that delivers its student programming.

Magnolia Movido

“TaxForward is an outstanding organization focused on skill development as well as building relationships with peers and within the business community,” said Movido. “I am honored to be a part of this platform and look forward to my new role as a board member.”

Founded in 2015, TaxForward creates opportunities for tax professionals to diversify and deepen their experiences outside the office. Members are provided a springboard for developing relationships through a variety of programs, such as mentoring and coaching, internships and training, comprehensive continuing education programming, and networking events. TaxForward serves as the parent organization of Future Tax Leaders, where accomplished tax professionals serve as mentors to students (currently, TaxForward is collaborating with the University of Denver, University of Colorado Denver, Metropolitan State University and Golden Gate University) and help them prepare for their careers.

With more than 16 years of Big Four accounting firm experience, Movido has managed global compliance and reporting for middle market to Fortune 10 companies; which involved launching businesses into new territories and jurisdictions, identifying and mitigating risks for foreign entities, and assisting in compliance with local laws. Movido has deep tax technical knowledge, assisting multinational clients with international tax compliance and tax planning. She is passionate about education and has served as a professor of law in the Philippines, and she is currently an adjunct faculty member at MSU (Master of Professional Accountancy Program).
