SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY DAVID EDELBLUTE APPOINTED TO THE U.S. COMMISSION ON CIVIL RIGHTS' NEVADA ADVISORY COMMITTEE

LAS VEGAS (JULY 2, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that David Edelblute, an attorney in the firm's Las Vegas office, was appointed to the Nevada Advisory Committee of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights. His will serve a four-year term, concluding in 2024.

The Nevada Advisory Committee is one of 51 State Advisory Committees \(SACs\), one for each state and the District of Columbia. Each is composed of citizen volunteers familiar with local and state civil rights issues. The members assist the Commission with its fact-finding, investigative, and information dissemination functions, according to its website. The Commission seeks to ensure that advisory committees are broadly diverse and represent a variety of backgrounds, skills, experiences and perspectives. This diversity promotes vigorous debate and full exploration of the issues. All appointments are made in a non-discriminatory manner.

"I am both humbled and honored to serve on our state's advisory committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights," said Edelblute. "I look forward to engaging in important — and often difficult — discussions that affect not only all Nevadans, but also all U.S. citizens."

David Edelblute

Edelblute is active in the community and currently serves as the Clark County (Nevada) Republican Party Whip and as Secretary to the Las Vegas Chapter of the Federalist Society. He also recently served on the Clark County Republican Party's Standing Committee on Platform and Legislative Policy. He has worked on numerous local, state, and federal candidate campaigns from 2004 to 2012 and assisted on issue campaigns involving school choice in his capacity as a field director for a non-profit organization. He also advised on issues including corporate formation related to social welfare and political organizations as part of his non-profit board leadership responsibilities.

At Snell & Wilmer, Edelblute focuses his practice in complex commercial litigation and government affairs. He represents a broad range of clients in both state and federal district court, and he also assists clients regarding various regulatory issues. He previously served as an extern for the Honorable Lloyd D. George of the District Court of Nevada. He received his B.A., with distinction, from Arizona State University and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School.
