SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY DAVID EDELBLUTE APPOINTED CLARK COUNTY REPUBLICAN PARTY WHIP

LAS VEGAS (JULY 6, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that David Edelblute, an attorney in the firm's Las Vegas office, was named the Clark County \(Nevada\) Republican Party Whip.

The county whip is an appointed position that serves the chairman and the executive board of the county party. As the whip, Edelblute will act as the director of the county party's bylaws and standing rules and will coordinate county caucus meetings.

"I'm honored to assume the whip position for Clark County's Republican Party," said Edelblute. "I look forward to working in this leadership role to continue advocating for the foundational tenets of liberty and equality."

In addition to his whip responsibilities, Edelblute recently served on the Clark County Republican Party's Standing Committee on Platform and Legislative Policy. He has worked on numerous local, state, and federal candidate campaigns from 2004 to 2012 and assisted on issue campaigns involving school choice in his capacity as a field director for a non-profit organization. He also advised on issues including corporate formation related to social welfare and political organizations as part of his non-profit board leadership responsibilities.

David Edelblute

At Snell & Wilmer, Edelblute focuses his practice in complex commercial litigation and government affairs. He represents a broad range of clients in both state and federal district court, and he also assists clients regarding various regulatory issues. He previously served as an extern for the Honorable Lloyd D. George of the District Court of Nevada. He received his B.A., with distinction, from Arizona State University and his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School.
