SNELL & WILMER PARTNER JENNIFER HADLEY CATERO ELECTED BY HOMEWARD BOUND'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS TO SERVE AS CHAIR OF DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

PHOENIX (July 13, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce Phoenix partner Jennifer Hadley Catero was elected by the board of directors of Homeward Bound to serve as the chair of the development committee. Homeward Bound is an Arizona-based nonprofit serving the needs of over 130 homeless families annually.

Homeward Bound not only provides the homeless with housing, but also an in-depth program, including financial planning, healthy relationship building, parenting and self-improvement coaching to get clients back on their own two feet. Its mission is to create pathways out of poverty for homeless families ready to make a change. Results show that after entering the Homeward Bound program, 82 percent of adults obtain employment and 94 percent of children improve their grades in school.

Jennifer Hadley Catero

“These are challenging times for nonprofit organizations, but now more than ever, it is important that our community step up to serve organizations like Homeward Bound and the homeless families that they help support,” Catero said. “I will do my best to help Homeward Bound navigate the challenges to fundraising in the current environment.”

Catero has served as the immediate past co-chair of Snell & Wilmer's Commercial Litigation practice and currently serves as co-chair of the Corporate Governance Litigation Group. She handles complex commercial litigation with an emphasis on corporate governance litigation, banking, consumer financial services and securities litigation, FINRA arbitration proceedings, shareholder derivative litigation, D&O litigation, class actions, internal investigations and privacy and data security issues. Catero also advises clients on compliance issues regarding consumer financial products and services.
