SNELL & WILMER PARTNER ERIC H. SPENCER RECOGNIZED AS FINALIST IN ARIZONA CAPITOL TIMES' 2020 BEST OF THE CAPITOL AWARDS

PHOENIX (August 13, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Phoenix partner Eric H. Spencer was recognized as a finalist in Arizona Capitol Times' 2020 Best of the Capitol awards in the Best Capitol and Political Lawyer category.

Spencer's practice is concentrated in special litigation and compliance with an emphasis in election law, campaign finance, public policy and government relations. He previously served as State Election Director and in-house counsel for the Arizona Secretary of State's office and is deeply experienced in election-related litigation and appellate matters in state and federal courts and before agencies, bringing his depth of knowledge to the firm's Constitutional and Political Litigation practice and Election practice. In his capacity as State Election Director, Spencer served on the Standards Board for the U.S. Election Assistance Commission (EAC) for developing voting equipment guidelines and, with his secret security clearance, regularly consulted with federal and state officials on election and cybersecurity. He regularly advises candidates, consultants, lobbyists, political action committees (PACs), ballot measure and independent expenditure committees, political parties, municipalities, corporations, election-related vendors, trade associations and other tax-exempt organizations, and individual donors and political contributors. Spencer also heavily focuses on lobbying and government relations, having drafted and shepherded into law several high-profile bills through the Arizona Legislature.
