SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY ERICA J. STUTMAN APPOINTED TO ARIZONA THEATRE COMPANY BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PHOENIX (September 3, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Phoenix counsel Erica J. Stutman was appointed to the Arizona Theatre Company Board of Trustees.

“I am so honored to be a part of this organization at this pivotal time, with new executive leadership whose drive and vision to bring engaging, creative and meaningful theatre to the Arizona communities is inspiring,” Stutman said.

In its 54th Season of providing high quality productions in a variety of genres – classic to contemporary plays, musicals, and new works – Arizona Theatre Company is truly “The State Theatre,” with the largest subscriber base of any performing arts organization in Arizona. More than 130,000 people each year attend performances at the historic Temple of Music and Art in Tucson and the Herberger Theater Center in downtown Phoenix.

ATC reaches far beyond the metropolitan areas of Tucson and Phoenix, enriching the theatre learning experience nationally for current and future audiences. In addition to the theatrical productions, ATC shares the passion of the theatre through a wide array of outreach programs, educational opportunities, access initiatives, and community events.

Stutman concentrates her legal practice on commercial litigation. Stutman has experience in a variety of commercial litigation matters, including lender liability claims regarding mortgage practices and foreclosure, disagreements among business partners, insurance bad faith claims, real estate title disputes, lien priority challenges, contract disputes, fraud actions and negligence claims. She has worked on numerous cases in the financial services field, where she has defended national institutions in actions involving claims of alleged wrongful foreclosure, loan servicing errors, breach of loan modification agreements, U.C.C. claims, aiding and abetting fraud and breach of fiduciary duty, the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), attacks on the mortgage industry and claims related to mortgage recording fees. Stutman earned both her J.D. and B.S. magna cum laude from Northwestern University.
