TUCSON PARTNER JILL PERRELLA RECOGNIZED AS 40 UNDER 40 AWARD RECIPIENT

TUCSON (September 11, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Tucson partner Jill Perrella has been named a recipient of Tucson’s 40 Under 40 Awards. Since its inception in 2005, the annual awards recognize young leaders who are making a positive impact in Tucson and beyond with their professional and charitable work.

Originally from Gila Bend, AZ, Perrella is a member of Snell & Wilmer’s bankruptcy and reorganization group. She represents creditors, debtors and other interested parties in complex commercial bankruptcy matters and related litigation. She has been recognized as a Southwest Super Lawyers®, Rising Stars Edition in Business Bankruptcy for the last five consecutive years and most recently as The Best Lawyers in America®, Ones to Watch Edition in Bankruptcy & Creditor Debtor Rights / Insolvency & Reorganization.

Jill Perrella

Since moving to Tucson in 2001, Perrella has been a strong community supporter. She volunteered hundreds of hours at local homeless shelters, women’s shelters and other vital community service providers during her time at Alpha Phi Omega, a national community service fraternity. Perrella has also volunteered at local free legal clinics for the homeless and the LGBTQ community and represented victims of domestic violence. She has served on the board of Wingspan (Southern Arizona’s former LGBTQ Community Center, now merged into Southern Arizona AIDS Foundation), as well as dedicated her time and knowledge as a volunteer at the U.S. Bankruptcy Court Self-Help Center.

Since 2015, Perrella has channeled her love for public media and service of the local community through active participation as a member of Arizona Public Media’s (AZPM) Community Advisory Board and as Chair of AZPM’s Governance Committee.

Presented by the Tucson Hispanic Chamber, the awards ceremony will be held on December 15, 2020, with University of Arizona Women’s Basketball Head Coach Adia Barnes as the keynote speaker.
