PHOENIX ATTORNEY BARBARA J. DAWSON RECOGNIZED IN AZ BUSINESS MAGAZINE MOST INFLUENTIAL WOMEN IN ARIZONA IN 2020

PHOENIX (September 21, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Phoenix Partner Barbara J. Dawson has been named as one of AZ Business Magazine's Most Influential Women in Arizona in 2020. She joins other Valley women who are honored for their impact on their organizations, the region's business climate and in the community.

At Snell & Wilmer, Dawson serves on the firm's elected five-person Executive Committee and three-person Compensation Committee. She has also led the firm's commercial litigation and international practices. Dawson's practice focuses on assisting Fortune 500 businesses and boards of directors with internal investigations, complex litigation and regulatory compliance. She assists companies when legal challenges arise from government action, shareholder, consumer and whistle-blower claims, and other circumstances involving business-threatening conflict and crisis management. She has deep industry experience with several highly regulated business sectors, including financial services, energy, education, government contracting and technology.

Barbara J. Dawson

On a national basis, Dawson recently served as one of 16 members of the ABA's Standing Committee on the Federal Judiciary that vets and rates federal judicial candidates for the United States Supreme Court, Courts of Appeal and District Courts. On an international basis, she has served as Chair of the Board of Directors for Lex Mundi, an international affiliation of 160 independent law firms located in 100 countries. Dawson frequently assists clients with matters involving non-U.S. parties and venues, international compliance issues and cross-border investigations. Her experience has included legal engagements, law-related presentations, projects and board of directors' duties on six continents.

Dawson received her J.D., with distinction, from the University of Iowa College of Law and her B.S., with distinction, from Iowa State University.
