SNELL & WILMER PARTNER JOHN DELIKANAKIS NAMED A TRUSTEE OF THE COLUMBIA COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

LAS VEGAS (October 28, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that John Delikanakis has joined the Board of Trustees of the Columbia County Historical Society.

The Columbia County Historical Society (CCHS) is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to the interpretation and preservation of the history and culture of Columbia County, New York.

It is the goal of CCHS to encourage understanding, knowledge, and preservation of the County's heritage through the acquisition and conservation of historic architecture and properties, objects and documents, and through the sponsorship of research, publications, exhibitions, and educational programs. To help achieve its mission, the CCHS owns, maintains, and interprets collections and buildings of historical significance, and operates a museum and extensive research library.

John S. Delikanakis

"Columbia County is steeped in history dating back to the 1600s, and I am deeply honored to join the board of trustees in its mission of preserving the county's culture and heritage for generations to come," said Delikanakis, who spends part of his time in New York.

Delikanakis is very active in the communities where he lives and works. From 2016 to 2018, he served as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Las Vegas Global Economic Alliance. He also served as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southern Nevada (2016-2018); Advisory Board Member of The Justice Michael L. Douglas PreLaw Fellowship Program (2019-present); Executive Committee and Advisory Board Member, The Salvation Army, Las Vegas (2001-2010, 2015-2017); and as a mentor with Be Engaged Business and Education Partnership, Clark County School District (2017).

Delikanakis is a partner with Snell & Wilmer's commercial litigation group in Las Vegas, Nevada. A former associate general counsel for a Fortune 500 company, his experience ranges from counseling senior management on day-to-day operational issues to litigating both simple and complex cases at the district court and appellate levels. John's recent practice is concentrated on real estate disputes, timeshare industry issues, business dissolutions, contracts for the sale of goods, and commercial guaranty matters in the district and appellate courts, as well as alternate dispute tribunals. He also counsels clients on e-discovery and data retention issues. Historically, John's experience includes representing companies in class action, shareholder derivative litigation and defending manufacturers in multi-district products liability cases. Delikanakis holds an AV Preeminent® Peer Review Rating from Martindale-Hubbell®. He also serves on Snell & Wilmer's E-Discovery Committee and Litigation Training Committee. He received his J.D. from Chicago-Kent College of Law and his A.B. from Vassar College.
