SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY DAVID EDELBLUTE JOINS HENDERSON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE'S LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE

LAS VEGAS (November 11, 2020) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that David Edelblute has joined the Henderson Chamber of Commerce's 2020-2022 Legislative Committee.

The Henderson Chamber of Commerce's (HCC) Legislative Committee works to convey the voice of Southern Nevada's business community to state representatives during the legislative session. The committee maintains, tracks and takes action to advocate on a robust watch list of bills it finds are significant to the needs of its nearly 1800-member businesses located throughout Southern Nevada. The committee focuses its advocacy efforts in Taxes & Regulations, Infrastructure & Developable Lands, Workforce Readiness, Healthcare and Taxes & Regulations. The HCC supports a pro-business climate that allows for job growth and economic diversity, which is imperative to its continued economic success.

David Edelblute

"I look forward to working with the Chamber's Legislative Committee as we prepare for the 2021 Legislative Session," said Edelblute. "I am pleased to be a part of the conversation that will help shape the direction of the Chamber's advocacy efforts and, most importantly, advocating for Henderson's continued economic success. Now, perhaps more than ever, it may be important to foster a pro-business environment as we work together to rebuild our community."

At Snell & Wilmer, Edelblute focuses his practice in complex commercial litigation and government affairs. David represents a broad range of clients in business matters and provides his clients advice on local, state, and national policy. He previously served as an extern for the Honorable Lloyd D. George of the District Court of Nevada.

Edelblute is also a federal appointee to Nevada's State Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, where he volunteers to assist the Commission with its fact-finding, investigative, and information dissemination functions on issues central to Nevada. His four-year appointment began in June 2020 and continues through 2024.

Following Nevada's 2019 Legislative Session, he authored a legal alert titled "Are you Ready, Nevada? Nine New Laws for the New Year." Edelblute has been recognized by Mountain States Super Lawyers®, Rising Stars Edition, Business Litigation (2019) and named to the Honor Roll by Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada (2018-2019).
