COURTNEY HENSON ELECTED PRESIDENT OF ARIZONA WOMEN LAWYERS ASSOCIATION SOUTHERN ARIZONA CHAPTER

TUCSON (January 7, 2021) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Tucson Associate Courtney Henson has been elected to a one-year term as President of the Southern Arizona Chapter of the Arizona Women Lawyers Association \(AWLA\).

During her term, Henson plans to focus on building and rebuilding genuine human connections within the community of women lawyers. Henson stated, “AWLA has historically been a community of women lawyers who come together to support one another. This year, more than ever, my hope is that AWLA can meet all of our members wherever they are and support them in whatever way it can.”

AWLA “promotes and encourages the success of women lawyers throughout Arizona by providing members with information and support, fostering connections among women lawyers and monitoring and celebrating the success of [its] members.”

Henson is a Commercial Litigation attorney who represents clients throughout the country on class actions and has worked with many of the region’s most prominent businesses. She has served on the Board of the Autism Society of Southern Arizona since 2013 and has worked on autism advocacy issues at the state level, frequently partnering with the Arizona Center for Law in the Public Interest. She is involved with the University of Arizona College of Law and the McCormick Society. Since 2015, she has served on the Siblings in Foster Care Reunion Committee, which reunites siblings living in separate foster homes. Finally, Henson was a finalist for the 2020 Women of Influence Awards in the Rising Star category as well as ranked as a Best Lawyers in America®, Ones to Watch Edition.
