Greg Gautam

Founded in 2009, LCLD is a growing organization of more than 350 corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners who are personally committed to building a more open and diverse legal profession. Since its inception in 2011, the year-long LCLD Fellows Program has focused on creating an ambitious, highly structured initiative that connects high-potential mid-career attorneys from preeminent corporations and law firms for a year-long professional development series that focuses on leadership and relationship building.

Gautam earned his B.S. in political science from the University of Wisconsin – Madison and his J.D. from the Washington University School of Law. He began his career at Snell & Wilmer in 2008 and was promoted to partner in 2017. Gautam has served as co-chair of Snell & Wilmer’s Diversity and Inclusion Committee since November 2016 and is the immediate past President of the South Asian Bar Association of Arizona and serves on the Regional Board of Directors for Teach for America – Phoenix. Gautam was Recognized by the Phoenix Business Journal as a member of its 40 Under 40 class in 2019 and has been named as a Southwest Super Lawyer®, Rising Star each year since 2014. He was also selected for the State Bar of Arizona’s 2020 Member of the Year Award.

In his practice, Gautam focuses on various areas of executive compensation and employee benefits, including counseling corporate boards, employers, compensation committees, and individual executives on the complex tax and other issues that impact executive compensation and benefit programs.
