PARTNER MARY D. HALLERMAN ELECTED TO THE FELLOWS OF THE AMERICAN BAR FOUNDATION

WASHINGTON, D.C. (March 4, 2021) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Mary D. Hallerman, a partner in the Washington, D.C. office, has been elected a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation \(ABF\). Membership is limited to just one percent of lawyers licensed to practice in each jurisdiction. Members are nominated by their peers and selected by the ABF Board. Hallerman joins a number of Snell & Wilmer attorneys across the firm who have previously been accepted.

The ABF Fellows is a global honorary society that recognizes attorneys, judges, law faculty and legal scholars whose public and private careers have demonstrated outstanding dedication to the highest principles of the legal profession and to the welfare of their communities. ABF Fellows hail from nearly 40 countries and hold a wide variety of influential roles.

Hallerman focuses her practice on trademark, trade dress, unfair competition, false advertising, and copyright litigation, enforcement and counseling. She regularly represents clients in federal trial and appellate courts throughout the United States and the Trademark Trial Appeal Board (TTAB), as well as in domain name disputes before the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO). In addition to her litigation practice, Mary regularly works with clients in managing trademark and domain name portfolios, assessing litigation risks, trademark selection and clearance, reviewing advertising copy, and assisting in the intellectual property aspects of corporate transactions.

Hallerman is a member of the Copyright Society of the USA, the International Trademark Association (INTA), and the National LGBT Bar Association. She has received numerous recent recognitions for her professional achievements, including by the Best Lawyers in America (Trademark Law), World Trademark Review 1000, the Legal 500, Super Lawyers (Rising Star), and the Benchmark Litigation 40 & Under Hot List.
