DENVER PARTNER ALOKE S. CHAKRAVARTY RECEIVES SOUTH ASIAN BAR ASSOCIATION 2021 CORNERSTONE AWARD

Denver (June 15, 2021) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Denver partner Aloke S. Chakravarty was named a recipient of the South Asian Bar Association (SABA) of North America 2021 Cornerstone Award. SABA North America presents annual awards recognizing outstanding member contributions at its yearly conference celebration, which takes place June 21-26 this year.

Aloke S. Chakravarty

The SABA North America Cornerstone Award is given to an individual who is a “cornerstone” of SABA North America. The candidate must exemplify the objectives of the organization through their legal work or their involvement with SABA North America, SABA Foundation, or local SABA chapters. Chakravarty was recognized for his legal accomplishments and his longstanding commitment to mentoring, recruiting and advocating for diverse attorneys, building public/private civil liberties coalitions and defending civil rights, and advising and serving SABA North America and chapters in Massachusetts and Colorado.

“I am honored and humbled to receive this recognition from SABA North America,” said Chakravarty. “It is a personal and professional goal of mine to help strengthen the South Asian American legal community and promote civil rights and access to justice.”

Chakravarty is the co-chair of Snell & Wilmer's Investigations, Government Enforcement and White-Collar Protection practice group and focuses on cybersecurity, data protection and privacy. He represents corporations, corporate management and individuals with a broad range of counseling, investigation and litigation services in the event of crises such as government investigations, cyber incidents, enforcement actions and regulatory scrutiny. Before joining Snell & Wilmer, Chakravarty spent 20 years as a state, federal and international investigator, prosecutor and trial lawyer. As a federal prosecutor, he responded to, investigated and prosecuted the Boston Marathon bombing case, among others.
