SNELL & WILMER SELECTED AS ORANGE COUNTY UNITED WAY UNITED4OC AWARD NOMINEE

ORANGE COUNTY (August 10, 2021) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce the Orange County office has been selected as a nominee for the Orange County United Way 2021 United4OC Awards. During the Orange County United Way's 2021 Rally for Change – A Corporate Social Responsibility Celebration taking place on September 14, nominees will be recognized and celebrated as the most valued corporate supporters who make significant contributions to the local community.

Orange County United Way is a non-profit organization committed to leading the fight for equity by removing barriers, closing gaps, and leveling the playing field for everyone who lives in Orange County. They continue to work to ensure local students succeed, local struggling families find financial security, and local homeless neighbors find a place to call home. Since 1924, they have worked to improve lives and strengthen the community by focusing on the building blocks for a good quality of life: education, income, health and housing. Rally for Change focuses on the interconnected issues of “FACE 2024,” their 10-year collaborative, communitywide action plan to create a positive future for the next generation. This event recognizes and celebrates individuals and companies who made outstanding contributions to change conditions in the community in the past year.

Orange County and Los Angeles partner James Scheinkman is the 2021 Rally for Change event co-chair, serves on the Orange County United Way Board of Directors and is a member of its Tocqueville Society and President's Circle, a network consisting of members who invest passion, expertise and resources to advance Orange County United Way's mission in the local community. Additionally, Snell & Wilmer's Orange County office honors its commitment to the community with the continued support and involvement with the Orange County United Way. Attorneys and staff participate in an annual week-long fundraiser including a variety of fun events which are held throughout the week to bring the office together to raise money for the community.
