ORANGE COUNTY ATTORNEY GREGORY J. SONNENBERG JOINS CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS FOUNDATION ASSOCIATE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ORANGE COUNTY (August 18, 2021) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Orange County attorney Gregory J. Sonnenberg was selected to join the Associate Board of Directors for the Constitutional Rights Foundation of Orange County (CRF-OC) last month.

The Constitutional Rights Foundation of Orange County is a local non-profit, non-partisan education organization dedicated to empowering Orange County youth to be active, responsible citizens through participation in high-quality, interactive civic and law-related education programs that connect students directly with professionals and community leaders. Its programs have been making a positive difference in the lives of Orange County teens for 40 years. As a member of the Associate Board of Directors, Sonnenberg will work with other board members to support the mission and programs of the CRF-OC.

Gregory J. Sonnenberg

Sonnenberg joined the Orange County office of Snell & Wilmer as a commercial litigation associate in March of 2021, and he focuses his practice on commercial litigation and risk management. He counsels individuals and businesses on matters including trademark controversies, business partnership disputes, and contract specific claims in state and federal courts. Sonnenberg is a skillful courtroom litigator, and also has significant experience representing and counseling clients in mediations and other alternative dispute resolution proceedings.

Sonnenberg is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and previously worked for a well-known accounting firm. He has been an active member of American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) since 2016. Sonnenberg is licensed to practice law in California and Utah, receiving his J.D. from the University of Utah, S.J. Quinney College of Law in 2018. He obtained both his MAcc in Taxation in 2014 and his B.S. in Accounting in 2013 from the University of Utah, David Eccles School of Business.
