INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY ATTORNEY HYEON S. KIM JOINS SNELL & WILMER'S GROWING SAN DIEGO OFFICE

SAN DIEGO (October 4, 2021) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to welcome patent and intellectual property attorney Hyeon S. Kim to the San Diego office.

“Hyeon is an exceptional attorney with strong roots in San Diego,” said Jeffrey D. Morton, founding partner of the San Diego office and co-chair of the firm’s Life Sciences and Medical Technology Industry Group. “The knowledge and experience he brings with him as a skilled engineer will add an additional strength to our team that will allow us to better serve our clients.”

Hyeon focuses his practice in patent law. He has experience drafting patent applications and office action responses in various technology industries including autonomous vehicles, electronics, mechanical devices and e-commerce systems and software.

Prior to becoming an attorney, Hyeon was an engineer for more than a decade, working at a variety of tech companies. He received his J.D. from University of San Diego School of Law and his B.S. from University of California, Los Angeles. Hyeon joins Snell & Wilmer from the San Diego office of Knobbe Martens.

Snell & Wilmer's San Diego office was established in April 2020 to meet the growing needs of its clients in the region. Located in one of the top biotech centers in the United States, the office focuses on representing biotechnology and technology clients on corporate and securities, intellectual property, real estate, tax, private client services, commercial finance and labor and employment matters as well as serving a wide range of individuals, businesses, and industries. To accommodate the significant growth in the office, the San Diego office recently moved to 3655 Nobel Drive, Suite 600, San Diego, California 92122.
