The Henderson Chamber of Commerce Foundation is a non-profit corporation that supports business development in Henderson and Southern Nevada through charitable and educational activities. The Henderson Chamber of Commerce Foundation is also responsible for the Henderson Business Resource Center, a business incubator designed to provide support services and resources for emerging businesses in Henderson.

"It is an honor to continue serving Southern Nevada's business community through IMPAC and the Henderson Chamber of Commerce Foundation," said Edelblute. "As a Henderson native and son of a small business owner, I relish the opportunity to provide a voice for business owners throughout Southern Nevada."

Edelblute is an associate focusing on commercial litigation and government affairs. He represents a broad range of clients in business matters, provides his clients advice on local, state, and national legislation, and guides his clients through complex regulatory and administrative matters. He received his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School and his B.A. from Arizona State University.
