SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEYS PATRICIA BRUM AND JOSHUA SCHNEIDERMAN NAMED IN LOS ANGELES BUSINESS JOURNAL'S 2021 LEADERS OF INFLUENCE: THRIVING IN THEIR 40s

LOS ANGELES (December 20, 2021) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Patricia Brum and Joshua Schneiderman have been selected for inclusion in Los Angeles Business Journal's 2021 Leaders of Influence: Thriving in Their 40s. This list recognizes Los Angeles' leading professionals in their 40s, along with some insights about their careers, attributes and accomplishments.

Brum, a Brazilian native, is a business litigator with extensive experience in representing companies (both large and small) in cross-border disputes and consumer class action matters. She is also a prominent leader in her community. Through her work in several non-profit organizations, Brum advocates for LGBTQ+ rights and art education for children in underserved communities. She draws upon her diverse and multi-cultural background to strategically help companies resolve their cross-border disputes. Brum's law practice is also focused on representing companies in the defense of consumer class actions, including but not limited to claims asserted under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), Fair Debt Collection Practices and Deceptive Trade Practices statutes. Amongst her clients are some of America's largest financial institutions. She received her J.D. from Southwestern Law School, her M.B.A. from University of Southern California and her B.A. from University of Brasilia.
