SNELL & WILMER PARTNER CARY D. JONES SELECTED AS A TOP 100 LAWYER OF 2022 BY LOS ANGELES BUSINESS JOURNAL

LOS ANGELES (May 17, 2022) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that partner Cary D. Jones has been selected for inclusion in Los Angeles Business Journal's 2022 Top 100 Lawyers. According to the publication, this list honors and recognizes the accomplishments of the most impactful attorneys in the Los Angeles region.

Jones is the Managing Partner of the firm's Los Angeles office where he leads his fellow attorneys and the office staff in efforts to exceed client expectations while fostering an enjoyable working environment, based on communication and mutual respect. He draws upon over 30 years of his extensive experience practicing real estate law, to serve as a trusted advisor and often a go-to outside counsel or lead counsel for his clients. His practice focuses on all aspects of sophisticated national real estate transactions, including mixed use, transit, hotel, historic properties, ski resort, shopping center and office developments and joint ventures; zoning and land use; real estate financing, and construction. He has experience in affordable housing law through his work on Heroes Project, which builds housing for teachers, police officers and hospital staff. Jones received his B.A. and J.D. from the University of Utah.

Cary D. Jones

Jones has been a leader in the downtown Los Angeles community since moving to the area in 2009. He is actively involved in the community, contributing as a leader, board member and volunteer for several local external organizations. Jones became a member of the Executive Committee for Los Angeles Central City Association, an organization dedicated to enhancing DTLA's vibrancy and increasing opportunity in the region through advocacy, influence and engagement. He is also a member of the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce, serving on the Board of Governors since 2011.
