SNELL & WILMER NAMES JACEY PRUPAS MANAGING PARTNER OF THE RENO OFFICE

RENO (June 15, 2022) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that partner Jacey Prupas has been named managing partner of its Reno office.

“I’m excited to assume this role and to lead the Reno office in continued growth within the firm and the community,” said Prupas. “We have a dynamic group of attorneys in the Reno office, and together we will continue to provide our clients with superior legal services.”

Prupas is a commercial litigator with more than 15 years of experience representing businesses in federal and state courts throughout Nevada and California. Her litigation experience is broad as she handles all facets of commercial litigation and has worked cases from inception through trial and arbitration. Her litigation experience includes complex business torts and contract disputes involving small local businesses all the way to Fortune 500 companies, healthcare issues, insurance coverage disputes and personal injury lawsuits. Prupas’s experience also extends to complex real estate disputes involving access and title issues and injunctive and declaratory relief.

Jacey Prupas

Prupas joined Snell & Wilmer in 2012. She is a member of the firm’s expanded Executive Committee, Loss Prevention Committee and Women’s Initiative Committee. She has been recognized by The Best Lawyers® in America® in Commercial Litigation, Mountain States Super Lawyers® in General Litigation and as a Top Rank Attorney by Nevada Business Magazine. Prupas received her J.D. from Santa Clara University School of Law and her B.S. in Political Science from Santa Clara University.

Attorneys in the Reno office represent clients in a wide range of practice areas, including commercial litigation, insurance and licensure, personal injury, intellectual property, private client services, trust and estate, bankruptcy and reorganization, and real estate.
