TUCSON SNELL & WILMER PARTNER JILL PERRELLA ELECTED AS SECTION CHAIR OF THE STATE BAR OF ARIZONA

TUCSON (July 18, 2022) – Snell & Wilmer Tucson partner Jill Perrella was elected as the new Chair for the Bankruptcy section of the State Bar of Arizona. Perrella has served in the section's Executive Council since 2021. She also served as the State Bar Convention Chair in 2020.

The work of the Bankruptcy section will evolve around promoting the State Bar's objectives in the fields of bankruptcy, insolvency laws, debtor's rights, creditor's rights and related fields. During her year as section Chair, Perrella wants to focus on reestablishing connections and reuniting the community of bankruptcy practitioners in Arizona post-Covid through in-person educational opportunities, social events and other networking/learning opportunities.

Jill Perrella

Perrella has significant experience representing financial institutions, particularly in the areas of bankruptcy and restructuring, creditors' rights, and commercial finance. In her bankruptcy and litigation practice, she represents creditors, debtors and other interested parties in complex commercial bankruptcy matters and related litigation. In her transactional practice, she assists her clients in the documentation of commercial, real estate and asset-based lending transactions. Perrella is also licensed in practice in Texas.
