News Release

SNELL & WILMER TUCSON ATTORNEY LAUREN R. TALKINGTON SELECTED FOR GREATER TUCSON LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

TUCSON (July 20, 2022) – Snell & Wilmer Tucson attorney Lauren R. Talkington was selected to participate in Greater Tucson Leadership’s flagship program Lead Tucson as part of its Class of 2023. She will be one of 35 community leaders from Southern Arizona who will be part of this rigorous nine-month program.

Since 1980, GTL has graduated over 1,000 participants and empowered them on their leadership endeavors. Lead Tucson classes help program participants step more strongly into leadership roles and become change agents in the community. From learning about the border and the criminal justice system to arts and culture and education, participants get to see how all different aspects of the community are connected and how they can make an impact.

Lauren R. Talkington

Talkington’s practice is concentrated in private client services, specifically estate planning, probate, estate and trust litigation, and business succession planning. She has extensive experience in preparing estate planning documents to fit clients’ needs, including wills, revocable or irrevocable trusts, as well as incapacity planning documents, such as financial and health care powers of attorney. Talkington is a board member of the Arizona Women Lawyers Association and also serves with the Southern Arizona Estate Planning Counsel and the Pima County Bar Association.
