SNELL & WILMER'S TUCSON OFFICE NAMED A FINALIST IN TUCSON CHAMBER'S COPPER CACTUS AWARDS

TUCSON (August 5, 2022) – Snell & Wilmer is proud to have been named a finalist to the Tucson Metro Chamber's Copper Cactus Awards in the category of Blue Cross Blue Shield Best Place to Work.

Since 1997, the Copper Cactus awards have honored some of the top companies in Southern Arizona. The Best Place to Work award category recognizes an organization that “has honest leadership with a clear vision and identity. They hire passionate people. And most of all these businesses create a fun atmosphere.”

Managing Partner Joe Kroeger stated, “Our people are our greatest asset and what truly make us a great place to work. We are extremely proud of the supportive culture we have built here at Snell, and that even in the serious business of law, we have created an environment where smiling and laughing is not only allowed, but encouraged.”

This is the fourth consecutive year that Snell & Wilmer's Tucson office has been named a finalist for a Copper Cactus Award. In 2019, Snell & Wilmer went on to win the Copper Cactus in the category of Nextrio Innovation for the creation and use of innovative processes.
