

Snell & Wilmer

Kristine L. Gallardo

Associate | Phoenix

Tel. 602.382.6236

kgallardo@swlaw.com

Main Bio

Kristie Gallardo practices in products liability litigation and commercial litigation matters. Her experience includes representing the manufacturers of automobiles and other consumer products. She received her J.D. from Vanderbilt University Law School. Previous experience includes an internship with the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Arizona.

Education

- Vanderbilt University Law School (J.D., 2017)
 - Notes Editor, Vanderbilt Journal of Entertainment and Technology Law
 - Dean's Scholar
 - Phi Delta Phi
 - La Alianza, Treasurer
- University of Arizona (B.A., magna cum laude, 2014)
 - Major: Philosophy, Politics, Economics, Law
 - Major: Spanish with Portuguese Emphasis
 - Dean's List
 - Mock Trial at the University of Arizona
 - Literacy Volunteers of Tucson, Writing Tutor

Professional Memberships & Activities

- Los Abogados Hispanic Bar Association
- American Bar Association

Representative Presentations & Publications

- "Taming the Internet Pitchfork Mob: Online Public Shaming, The Viral Media Age, and the Communications Decency Act," Note Author, 19 Vand. J. Ent. & Tech. L. 3 (2017)
 - Recipient of the Vanderbilt Journal of Entertainment and Technology Law Student Writing Award, which goes to the graduate with the most outstanding piece of student writing for publication in the journal

Professional Recognition & Awards

- Arizona Bar Foundation Top Pro Bono Attorney of the Year (2019)

Community Involvement

- Amanda Hope Rainbow Angels, Latino Focus Group
- Veterans' StandDown, Volunteer
- Volunteer Lawyers Program
- Wills for Heroes, Volunteer

Other Professional Experience

- Snell & Wilmer, Summer Associate (2016)
- United States Attorney's Office, District of Arizona, Summer Law Clerk (2015)

Bar Admissions

- Arizona

Court Admissions

- Supreme Court of Arizona
- United States District Court, District of Arizona