Main Bio

Lee Fraley offers clients a unique blend of intellectual property counseling, IP rights enforcement and defense, and solution-focused negotiation of IP-related transactions and acquisitions. In recent years, he has counseled numerous clients worldwide, from emerging and growing businesses to middle-market and large cap companies, in the development of patent, copyright, trade secret and trademark portfolios geared toward accomplishing their business goals and objectives.

A substantial portion of Lee's practice involves negotiating and counseling his clients with regard to litigation/dispute resolution. As to trademarks in particular, Lee advises the above clients during all stages of securing US and foreign trademark protection, is also actively involved in opposition and cancellation proceedings before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, and manages other contentious trademark proceedings in the United States and around the world. Lee's practice also heavily involves negotiating and counseling his clients with regard to a variety of transactional matters such as acquisitions, venture-capital/financing and related due diligence, and negotiating research and development, licensing and other commercialization agreements.

He has handled these types of matters for clients in a variety of industries, with particular emphasis in electronics and semiconductors, medical devices, software including SaaS/PaaS, telecommunications, IT and cloud-based networking and services, crowd-sourcing applications, gaming, retail/franchising, sports and entertainment, music, renewable energy, unmanned and other autonomous vehicles, cannabis/CBD, social media and media law.
