Main Bio

Cameron Schlagel's practice focuses on commercial litigation and constitutional litigation in both state and federal court. As a former federal law clerk, Cameron offers his clients valuable insight into the legal system. Cameron regularly represents businesses and individuals in matters involving breach of contract, business disputes, construction and construction defect, consumer class actions, false advertising, fraud and fraudulent transfers, State and federal constitutional law, trade secret misappropriation, and unfair competition.

Before joining Snell & Wilmer, Cameron served as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable John W. Holcomb of the United States District Court for the Central District of California and the Honorable Ernest M. Robles of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California. He also served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Kim McLane Wardlaw of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and the Honorable Neil W. Bason of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California.
