Main Bio

With nearly 20 years of experience, Ben Naylor is an experienced labor and employment litigator and trusted advisor to his clients. Ben strives to provide hyper-responsive, practical, and consumable advice to employers of all sizes on a range of human resources and employment-related issues. If claims are unavoidable, Ben has a proven track record defending employers across the country in agency proceedings and in state and federal litigation of discrimination and retaliation claims, failure to accommodate claims, and wage and hour claims, among others. He also represents clients in contract and tort claims involving restrictive covenants, tortious interference claims, and breach of contract claims. Ben's representative clients include an array of employers from two-person startups to Fortune 100 companies across multiple industries including technology, retail, banking, hospitality, fintech, shipping and logistics, and aviation.
